Historical Note

The Free and Accepted Masons (F&AM) have operated fraternal lodges in Michigan's Copper Country since 1861. Along with related Masonic organizations such as the Royal Arch Masons (RAM) and the Youth Order of DeMolay, regular F&AM lodges operated at different times in Hancock, Houghton, Calumet, Laurium and at the mining locations on Quincy Hill and in Keweenaw County. In addition, Masonic organizations created independent building associations to fund, construct and manage Masonic lodge buildings in several communities. As of 2008, the Copper Country Lodge No. 135 continues as the descendant Freemason lodge of all previous historic lodges that have operated along the Keweenaw Peninsula.
