Faculty Narrative (FAR-FN)

includes COVID impact statement

the FAR has its own page number system, please be sure to indicate the FAR page number in the information below [e.g., 13 from example below]

For reviewers: The faculty narrative allows candidates to address their professional growth in the areas of teaching, research, mentoring, and service, as well as reflect on the evolution of their career to date. Information in the faculty narrative is submitted each year so that this field provides a longitudinal perspective.

Indicate what page in the FAR your Faculty Narrative begins

Page(s) in FAR that you would like to highlight

The heading for your Faculty Narrative will look as follows:

Annual Faculty Narrative from Annual Faculty Narratives screen. This section will print all records that have a date falling within 10 years of the report date parameters chosen.

and the page number to indicate above can be found in the footer of your FAR.
