Biography

William H. Brinkman was born in Redridge, Michigan on August 22, 1906. A son of Emma and William Brinkman, he graduated from Painesdale High School in 1926. Brinkman attended Michigan Technological University for a year and was awarded a degree at Northern State Teacher's College in 1928. He was a World War II veteran, having served in the Navy and also a member of the U.S. Navy Band that entertained troops in North Africa. Brinkman taught math and general science at the Redridge School where he served as teacher and principal for 27 years. He also taught in Kodiak, Alaska, the Sioux Indian Reservation in South Dakota, and in Montana until his retirement in 1970. As a young man he took up the hobby of photography from Charles Saltzer, another Redridge photographer. In the William H. Brinkman Photograph Collection, some of the photographs of the early years in Redridge are actually Mr. Saltzer's work. Following his retirement from teaching, Brinkman worked as a photographer, reporter, and associate editor of the Daily Mining Gazette. William H. Brinkman died at the age of 88 in the Dickinson County Hospital in September 3, 1994.
