Pathways to Success in Graduate School

Welcome to Michigan Tech! We are glad you have chosen Michigan Tech to pursue your graduate studies, and we look forward to welcoming you on campus. This document outlines the many activities that are part of our orientation program at Michigan Tech. They are each a part of your Pathway to Success in Graduate School. Graduate school will require you to grow academically, professionally, and socially in order to achieve your goals. This guide is organized chronologically so you can see what events you should be attending each day.

Before You Arrive

Submit a Photo for your HuskyCard

HuskyCard is the official Michigan Tech ID card that is issued to all students, faculty, and staff. Your HuskyCard gives you access to campus buildings (residence halls, dining, labs, and academic buildings) and parking lots, if applicable. You can also use your card like a debit card to purchase items at campus retailers that accept Michigan Tech Express Cash, including the Campus Bookstore, University Images, Rozsa Box Office, SDC Central Ticket Office, the MUB Food Court, cafés, and vending machines.

Would you like to submit a photo for your HuskyCard?

Friday, September 7

K-Day (Keweenaw Day)
Noon – 4:00pm | Centennial Park, Chassell
K-Day is an annual tradition at Michigan Tech held on the Friday of the week of Labor Day. Each year on K-Day, classes release at noon so our students can celebrate their beautiful surroundings in the Keweenaw Peninsula and learn about ways to get involved and connected at Tech. You'll find lots of food and snacks, music, inflatable games, and more. Best of all, more than 200 of Michigan Tech's Registered Student Organizations will have booths set up so you can learn more about them and learn how you can get involved.

Need a ride to Centennial Park?
Student Activities offers large buses that will be shuttling students back and forth. The buses are air conditioned and pick up from the Memorial Union Building (MUB) on-campus. They will drop you off inside the park so you can get right to the action. Buses depart about every 30 minutes and will return to the park until all students have been picked up. (More Information)

First Friday Social
4:00 – 6:00pm | Academic Office & ROTC Lawn
First Friday Socials throughout the year provide Michigan Tech faculty, staff, graduate students, and retirees with a casual setting for informal discussion and socializing. They’re an excellent opportunity to meet new people, learn about other departments, share your own work and interests with colleagues, and enjoy complimentary beverages and snacks.
