Honors Abilities

Pavlis Honors College

The Pavlis Honors College has generated the following list of abilities that outline the competencies that our Honors students are expected to graduate with.

Know Yourself
The motivation to cultivate self-awareness through reflection, listening, and experience

Balance Confidence and Humility
The sensibility to recognize your strengths and limitations and fulfill your personal need to grow

Value Diverse Perspectives
The initiative to engage with others to exchange ideas, consider other perspectives, and exhibit compassion

Communicate Empathically
The ability to understand and adapt by listening across differences and contributing your story with respect and humility

Engage in Mentorship
The inclination to recognize and value your mentors, and the capacity to fulfill this role for others

Welcome Challenge
The courage to move intentionally outside of your comfort zone, take risks, celebrate success, and learn from failure

Embrace Ambiguity
The strength to cultivate comfort with uncertainty and change

Act with Purpose
The drive to seize opportunities and pursue goals with purpose and integrity

Learn Deeply
The inspiration to satisfy curiosity, discover passion and ignite imagination over your lifetime