What is Seelio?

Seelio is a place for you to easily and beautifully document your works, projects, and passions to tell your professional story, share your personal brand and improve your online presence.

Why use Seelio?

☐ Go Beyond Bullet Points
Capture all the things that add depth to a resume—like research projects, volunteer opportunities, internships, and leadership activities—with rich visuals and meaningful descriptions to more accurately and vividly reflect your experience.

☐ Develop Your Personal Brand
The only way your personal brand will work for you is if you truly believe in it. Reinforce it with activities that put your ideas into action. Getting to know yourself and your story is one of the reasons we believe it’s so helpful to build a portfolio.

☐ Showcase Yourself
Graduate with more than a GPA, transcript, or resume. Leverage all the digital pieces of your online presence—like YouTube videos, Prezi presentations, images, and more—to beautifully showcase your personal brand, what you know, and what you do.

☐ Own Your Job Search
Control what recruiters see when they look for you. Present all your achievements, skills, and interests in a beautiful and easy-to-use portfolio. Your personal URL can easily be added to your resume, LinkedIn, and other professional pages to give a better picture of who you are.

☐ Find Your Path
Collecting your best work helps you identify themes, interests, and skills to help you better tell your story and enter your interviews with confidence. Build your portfolio to see where you’ve been and where you want to go.

☐ Join a Community
Connect with other students in your class, on your campus, or on other campuses to get feedback on your work and find inspiration. Plus, get access to Seelio’s resources that help you build and refine your portfolio.

What can you do on Seelio?

Document Class Projects
You worked hard for weeks or maybe even all semester on that project; show it off! Whether it’s a robot you built or a marketing proposal you developed, use Seelio to document what you learned and get recognized for it.

Share a Recent Internship or Job Experience
Talk about what you learned (even if you have to keep other parts of the job a secret), what skills you gained, and the impact you made on either the project or organization.

Share & Collaborate On Cool Projects
Connect with peers on Seelio that share your passions—whether that’s creating apps, coordinating a dance marathon, or taking stellar pictures. Put your work out there and find collaborators!
