Notice Regarding Wellness Programs

The Health Risk Assessment (HRA) wellness program is a voluntary program available to benefit eligible employees. The program is administered according to federal rules permitting employer-sponsored wellness programs that seek to improve employee health or prevent disease, including the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act of 2008, and the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, as applicable, among others. If you choose to participate in the wellness program, you will be asked to complete a voluntary health risk assessment or “HRA” that asks a series of questions about your health-related activities and behaviors and whether you have or had certain medical conditions (e.g., cancer, diabetes, or heart disease). You will also be asked to complete an annual physical, which will include a blood test. You are not required to complete the HRA or to participate in the annual physical or other medical examinations.

However, employees who choose to participate in the wellness program will receive an incentive of $100 in TechFit, $100 for a Health Savings Account (HSA), $100 for a Flexible Spending Account (FSA), or $200 in T2 for completing both the HRA and having an annual physical. Although you are not required to complete the HRA or participate in the annual physical, only employees who do so will receive one of the incentives mentioned above.

Additional incentives may be available for benefit eligible employees who participate in certain health-related activities. All benefit eligible employees will receive $150 in TechFit for themselves and $100 total for dependents every January 1. Additional incentives may be earned by participating in the HuskyPAW program which allows employees to earn various incentives by tracking their exercise and nutrition. The SWEAT program and various Lunch and Learns allow for employees to earn additional HuskyPAW points for participating in assorted wellness activities. If you are unable to participate in any of the health-related activities required to earn an incentive, you may be entitled to a reasonable accommodation or an alternative standard. You may request a reasonable accommodation or an alternative standard by contacting Benefit Services at 906-487-2517.

The information from your HRA and the results of any biometric information provided will be used to provide you with information to help you understand your current health and potential risks. The information is confidential and will be used in aggregate with responses from other HRA participants to establish wellness programming across campus. You are also encouraged to share your results or concerns with your own doctor.
