

Marching orders from the Provost

Your principal responsibilities will include:

- Development of plans to insure the University information technology infrastructure and initiatives support the institutional strategic plan;
- Implementation of recommendations of past advisory committees and development of an advisory structure that will provide the campus community with appropriate involvement in information technology priority-setting and decision-making;
- Development of recommendations regarding administrative organization of information technology support and recommendations regarding information technology budgets, including approval of major acquisition of software and hardware and setting of relative priorities of information technology initiatives as they arise; and
- Other duties as assigned.