HASS LIST PROPOSAL FORM

Proposal to include new course on the HASS Lists

Please list below any new course you propose for inclusion on the HASS Distribution Courses List.

If the course is a 2000-level course, be sure to indicate whether it can be taken during the first year concurrently with "Perspectives" and/or "World Cultures" by checking the box below.

Course available to first year students.

The Distribution Lists are:

HASS (Humanities, Arts, and Social Sciences) – these courses provide breadth and depth in the fields of fine arts, history, philosophy, literature, cultural anthropology, geography, and social organization at various scales (family to global) on human behavior. Politics, markets, religion-as organization, schooling, and family are the primary content areas of courses. The aim of the course should be refinement of a student's aesthetic capacities and/or ability to understand human culture. Must be 2000 level or above.

HASS Creative Endeavors List

HASS Supplemental List

The proposals are reviewed by the Distribution Committee and a course may be placed on any of the above lists. The Creative Endeavors and Supplemental Lists have a restriction of maximum 3 credits used towards general education requirement. Courses will be placed by Distribution Committee only on a single list.
