Name (please print): ____________________________________________________________________________

Student Number: ______________________________

Primary Major: _______________________________ Expected Major Completion Term: _______________

Required Course

GE2020 _____ Intro to Mining Engineering and Mining Methods (4)

Elective Courses* (12 credits)

GE _______ _________________________________
GE _______ _________________________________
GE _______ _________________________________
GE _______ _________________________________
GE _______ _________________________________
GE _______ _________________________________
GE _______ _________________________________
GE _______ _________________________________
GE _______ _________________________________

Credits Required = 16
Total Credits _______

*Students must consult with a departmental advisor to select any sequence of upper-division courses from Geological and Mining Engineering Department. Students are responsible for satisfying all prerequisites.