Name (please print): ____________________________________________________________________________

(Last)                                                     (First)                                                (Middle)

Student Number: ___________________________

Primary Major:__________________________________ Expected Major Completion Term: __________

Student ___________________________ Date ___________ Department Advisor ___________________________ Date ___________

Required Course

GE2020 _____ Intro to Mining Engineering and Mining Methods (4)

Credits Required = 16

Total Credits _______

Elective Courses* (12 credits)

GE _______ ______________________________________

GE _______ ______________________________________

GE _______ ______________________________________

GE _______ ______________________________________

GE _______ ______________________________________

GE _______ ______________________________________

GE _______ ______________________________________

GE _______ ______________________________________

GE _______ ______________________________________

*Students must consult with a departmental advisor to select any sequence of upper-division courses from Geological and Mining Engineering Department. Students are responsible for satisfying all prerequisites.

Academic Year 2011-12