Name (please print): ____________________________________________________________________________

(Last)                                                     (First)                                                (Middle)

Student Number: ___________________________

Primary Major: ____________________________ Expected Major Completion Term: __________________

Required Course

GE2020 Intro to Mining Engineering and Mining Methods (4)

Elective Courses* (12 credits)

GE __________   ______________________________________
GE __________   ______________________________________
GE __________   ______________________________________
GE __________   ______________________________________
GE __________   ______________________________________
GE __________   ______________________________________
GE __________   ______________________________________
GE __________   ______________________________________

*Students must consult with a departmental advisor to select any sequence of upper-division courses from Geological and Mining Engineering Department. Students are responsible for satisfying all prerequisites.

Credits Required = 16
Total Credits ________

Student Date Department Advisor Date

Department of Geological and Mining Engineering and Sciences

Minor in Mining
EMGM

Academic Year 2013-14