

President's Survey 2017

Some Preliminary Commentary

Report

- The APC will present the report to the Senate in the two weeks, in the meeting of March 1st.
- Today we share a few slides that relates to the Senate.

Report

	Invitations Sent	Responses Received	%
Union Staff	308	111	36%
Faculty	458	170	37%
Professional Staff	598	255	43%
Non-Senate Constituents (Deans/ Directors/etc)	68	32	48%

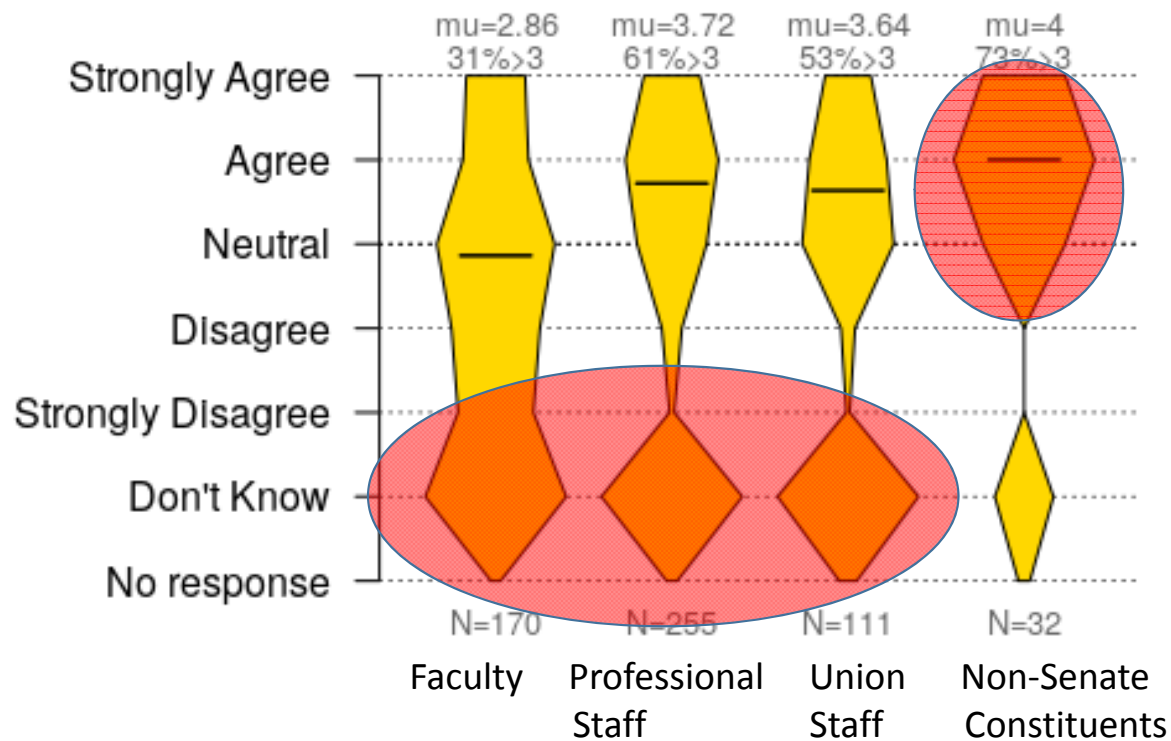

Surprises!

Are you a Senate constituent? Most faculty and staff, including department chairs, are constituents; but certain faculty and staff who have university administrative roles (e.g. Vice President, Dean, Director) are not constituents. For an up-to-date list of the Senate Constituents please refer the Senate website at <http://www.mtu.edu/senate/information/constituents/>

	Yes	No	Don't know	No + Don't Know
Faculty	85.3%	11.8%	2.9%	14.7%
Professional Staff	66.5%	27.2%	6.3%	33.5%
Non-Constituents	23%	61.3%	9.7%	71%

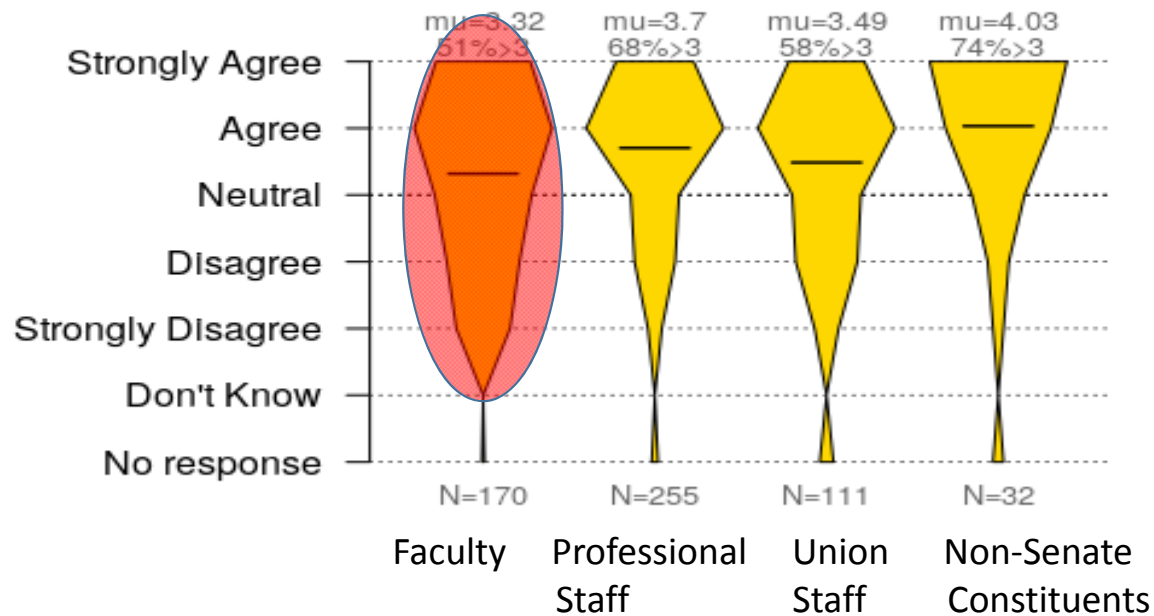

Surprises!

He [The President] considers the view and consults with the Senate in a shared governance model.

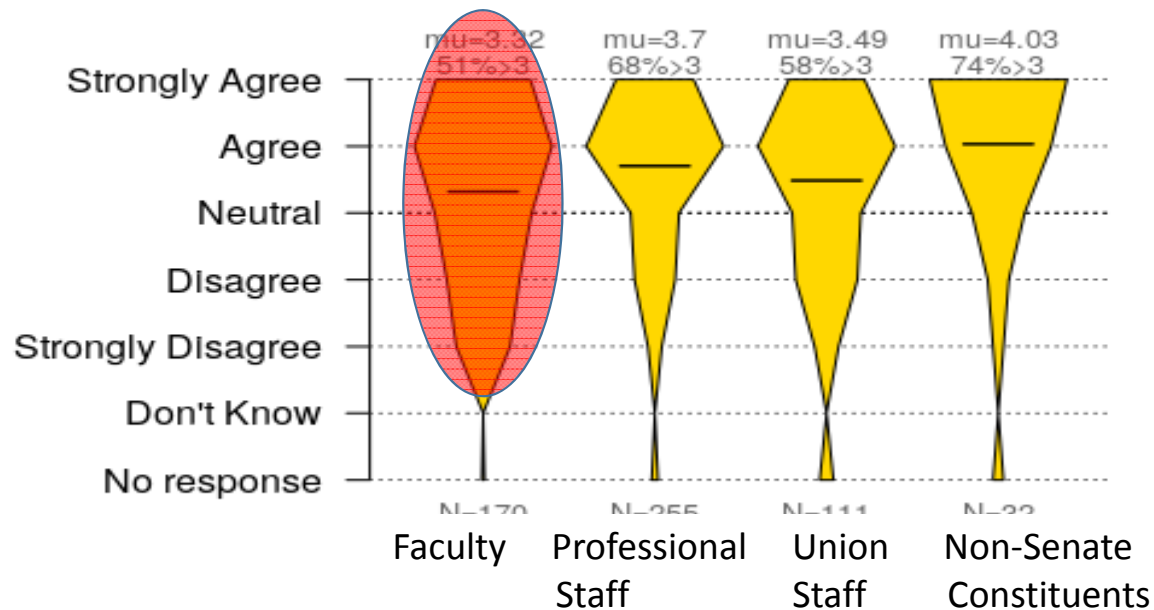

Surprises!

I am comfortable voicing my opinions and concerns without the fear of repercussion

It is by the goodness of God that in our country we have those three unspeakably precious things: freedom of speech, freedom of conscience, and the prudence never to practice either of them. Mark Twain

Written Comments

- Daycare
- Health benefits (rising cost still an issue)
- Teaching (not given as much latitude as research)
- Gender bias (in teaching evaluation)
- Diversity (too much or too little)
- Political environment (concerns on both sides)- Inadequate response to the Presidential Immigration Policy VS Liberal university rhetoric is devaluing my conservative principles. I feel like the enemy now!
