Waino Wahtera Center for Student Success
Academic Success Workshops: Fall 2015
All sessions are at 5:00 PM in the Memorial Union Building

September 1 (MUB Ballroom B)
Probation and getting back in good academic standing
This session will discuss the conditions of academic probation and how to get back into good standing. It will also discuss resources and strategies to encourage ongoing academic success.

September 8 (MUB Ballroom B)
Procrastination, prioritization, motivation and organization: Get time on your side
Time management is really effective self-management. Understand how to avoid time wasting pitfalls, and learn the tools to help you make the most effective use of your time.

September 9 (MUB Alumni Lounge)
Work Smarter, Not Harder
Participants attending this session will become familiar with metacognitive awareness ("thinking about thinking"), will learn to develop learning goals and how to make adjustments to be more academically successful.

September 15 (MUB Ballroom B)
I never really had to study before...
Many students arrive at Michigan Tech without solid study skills and strategies. Whether you are a first year or a fifth year this session provides an overview of what good study habits look like and allows for adaptation to your learning style.

September 22 (MUB Alumni Lounge)
Testing, testing: 1, 2, 3, 4
Do you ever feel like you know the course material but can’t translate it to a successful exam grade?
Learn effective preparation and test taking strategies.

October 13 (MUB Ballroom B)
Testing, testing: 1, 2, 3, 4 (second offering)

October 27 (MUB Ballroom B)
Mid-semester reboot
Did you wake up this morning and realize the semester is indeed half over. Do you feel far behind or way overwhelmed?
Take an optimistic approach and use strategies from this session to “reboot” your semester and work towards success.

December 8 (MUB Alumni Lounge)
The Academic Probation and Suspension Process
Do you have questions about academic probation, how to get back into good standing or are concerned that you or someone you know may be academically suspended after this semester?
