Students will enter through the main entrance to the Multipurpose Room. On the day of commencement they need to collect their name card and proceed to their row. Name card tables are only staffed on Saturday.

Procession lineup begins on either side of the procession exit door. Procession line moves promptly at 10:30 am.

Husky Black, Row 1 is the first group of students on the left wall when facing the exit. Husky Black consists only of undergraduate students. Husky Gold begins with Dr. Deb Charlesworth and the graduate students, then followed by Dr. Jean Kampe and undergraduate students.

Husky Black does not exit until Husky Gold undergraduate students meet them at the exit. Husky Black will allow Dr. Charlesworth and Graduate Students, to proceed before they move with Dr. Kampe.
