Important Information regarding the International Exchange Student listening and speaking assessment

1. Why was it developed?

The International Exchange Student listening and speaking assessment was developed by faculty at Michigan Tech’s English Language Institute (ELI); this interview is also administered by the ELI faculty. The purpose of this assessment is to determine if an exchange student would be equipped to be self-sufficient in his/her spoken English-language skills while enrolled in courses at Michigan Technological University and living in Houghton County.

2. How do I order and pay for this assessment?

For this assessment, international students must have access to Zoom communication. The cost of this assessment is $25.00 (USD). To make a payment, please do so at the following ELI link: https://secure.touchnet.net/C21042_ustores/web/classic/product_detail.jsp?PRODUCTID=1262. Credit card payments are accepted. Once payment is received, the J-1 student will receive an email from the ELI assistant requesting possible interview times. For more information, contact the ELI assistant at +1 (906) 487-1729.

3. What is the format of the language assessment?

Students are interviewed for approximately 15-30 minutes. Over Zoom, they are asked questions about one photo and other topics. The questions range from descriptive to abstract. During the assessment, students may ask for clarification. In addition, two raters are present to ensure objectivity.

4. How do I connect via Zoom to the online language assessment?
