

Position Description

Job Title: Forest Restoration Technician

Description: Ironwood Forestry is a private company providing forestry support services for government agencies. Our mission is to provide innovations and solutions for forest restoration in the Southwest.

This position will work on a team to develop and demonstrate new innovations in timber sale preparation. Projects will be in Northern Arizona and may require some travel and onsite camping. This position will learn and execute all the steps involved in preparing a timber sale using the most advanced methods available, including experimental methodology.

This is a challenging and demanding position, and it is crucial to our success. We expect that the person in this position will devote whatever time is required to ensure their success, as well as that of Ironwood Forestry. This position reports to the Restoration Forester and executes tasks in the field.

Goals:

- Learn all steps involved in a USFS timber sale
- Exceed established productivity rates by a significant margin
- Integrate new technology and methodologies into the timber sale preparation workflow

Responsibilities:

- Manage subsection of project
- Conduct forest inventory and LiDAR scanning
- Develop digital marking guide
- Execute silvicultural prescriptions
- Participate in physical training exercises and public relations campaign
- Other duties as assigned

Expectations:

- Work in arduous conditions
- Long work hours
- High expectations for performance
- Meet deadlines
- Challenge yourself to reach your highest potential

Qualifications:

- Strong interest in pursuing a career in forest management
- Ability to carry 50lbs for long periods of time over rough terrain
- Valid driver's license
- Courageous
- Curious

Start/End:

Spring Semester – Immediately (weekends)
Summer - May - August

Work Schedule:

Spring – 5-20 hours per week
Summer – 50+ hours per week

Compensation: DOE

Ironwood Forestry is an equal opportunity employer, and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status or any other characteristic protected by law.