

Position Description

Job Title: Restoration Forester

Description: Ironwood Forestry is a private company providing forestry support services for government agencies. Our mission is to provide innovations and solutions for forest restoration in the Southwest.

This position will work on a team to develop and demonstrate new innovations in timber sale preparation. Projects will be in Northern Arizona and may require some travel and onsite camping. This position will learn and execute all the steps involved in preparing a timber sale using the most advanced methods available, including experimental methodology.

This is a challenging and demanding position, and it is crucial to our success. We expect that the person in this position will devote whatever time is required to ensure their success, as well as that of Ironwood Forestry. This position reports to the Principal Forester and executes tasks in the field and office.

Goals:

- Seek to understand problems facing forest restoration and potential solutions
- Implement new solutions in the field and refine methodology

Responsibilities:

- Manage field projects
- Manage field crews
- Execute silvicultural prescriptions
- Develop and lead physical training exercises
- Attend online and in-person continuing education
- Maintain and expand Ironwood Forestry's professional network and participate in public relations campaign
- Other duties as assigned

Expectations:

- Work in arduous conditions
- Long work hours
- High expectations for performance
- Meet deadlines
- Challenge yourself to reach your highest potential

Qualifications:

- B.S. in Forestry
- Valid driver's license
- Willing to become a Certified Forester through the Society of American Foresters
- Ability to carry 50lbs for long periods of time over rough terrain
- Courageous
- Curious

Work Schedule: 50+ hours per week

Compensation: $60-80/year DOE

Ironwood Forestry is an equal opportunity employer, and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status or any other characteristic protected by law.