

Great Basin Institute

Now Recruiting!

The Great Basin Institute (GBI) is an interdisciplinary field studies organization that promotes environmental research, education, and service throughout the West. In line with our mission to advance applied science and ecological literacy through community engagement and agency partnerships, GBI has partnered with the US Forest Service (USFS) Region 5 to help various forests meet their management objectives.

OPEN POSITIONS:

- TIMBER STAND IMPROVEMENT LEAD
- TIMBER STAND IMPROVEMENT TECHS
 - TIMBER SALE ADMINISTRATOR
 - ASSISTANT CULTURIST
 - FORESTRY CREW LEADS
 - FORESTRY CREW TECHS

Click on link to apply, or visit our website to view all positions:

<https://www.vscyperhosting.com/greatbasin/>

USFS Region 5 encompasses all of California's Forest Service lands. With nearly 20 million acres of land to manage in California alone, our partnership is helping the USFS get more boots on the ground to do the important work needed to keep our natural resources managed.

Please contact one of our Forestry Program Coordinators with any questions:

Mila Bock

831-332-6452 or email

Jenna Narducci

360-420-7710 or email