Historical Note

The Center for Diversity and Inclusion (CDI) is a department within Michigan Technological University, housed in the Hamar House. It's function on campus is to promote diversity ,create welcoming and safe spaces for all, collaborate on campus initiatives that support and foster cultural diversity and inclusion, while building awareness of social justice issues. CDI sponsors, hosts, and supports various workshops, speakers, and events on campus aimed at creating a "deeper understanding and appreciation for diversity, inclusion, and social justice," including Black History Month, Martin Luther King, Jr. Week, Women's History Month, the Percy Julian Graduation Reception, and events like the annual Michigan Tech Drag Show and Bra shows.
