

Andrew Fiss

Assistant Professor of Technical & Professional Communication, Humanities
afiss@mtu.edu

My background

Ph.D./M.A. History & Philosophy of Science, A.B. Math
Postdoctoral Fellowships in Science Studies and Writing
(Vassar College and Davidson College)

Areas of research/expertise

History of STEM Education

- ✓ Student Perspectives on Math, Engineering, and Natural Sciences
- ✓ Students as Objects of Medical Study

Interdisciplinary Studies of Science and Technology

- ✓ Technical and Scientific Communication
- ✓ History, Philosophy, and Rhetoric of Science

Andrew Fiss, afiss@mtu.edu

How I can contribute

- Communicating the value of STEM to Liberal Arts audiences and the Arts to STEM audiences (“STEAM”)
 - Undergraduate Class Collaborations; Graduate Projects
 - Interdepartmental Workshops and Committees
- Contextualizing STEM Teaching and Professionalization
 - History of Higher Education
 - Diversity in Labs, Classrooms, and Other Workplaces
 - Qualitative Research in Education

