Pre-sale Advantages

Skip the rush and eliminate the risk of a sold-out show. The Rozsa Presenting Series Ticket Package goes on sale two weeks before individual tickets are released.

Detroit Metropolitan Dance | September 12, 2026

Priority Seat Choice

Pick your seats to each reserved seating show before anyone else. Whether you love the front row or prefer the view from the tier, you get first choice!

Seamless Transfers

Every ticket package includes one ticket to all eight (8) performances in the Rozsa Presenting Series, paired with our complimentary Concierge Service for seamless flexibility.

If you can't make it to a scheduled performance, your tickets are fully transferable. You are welcome to gift your seats to a friend or resell them at cost to another guest. You can also change your seats for any show without a fee, with dedicated help from our Box Office.

Some restrictions apply.

Package Exclusions: This package is valid exclusively for the 8 events in the Rozsa Presenting Series. Ticket substitutions for other non-series events are not permitted. This package excludes admission to the Class Acts series, Visual and Performing Arts series events, Rental events, and special fundraising events such as the Rozsa Soirée. Note: Akropolis Reed Quintet is a Rozsa Backstage General Admission performance, seat reservation selection is not available.*

Purchase Limits: To ensure fair access for our entire community, there is a strict limit of eight (8) ticket packages per guest transaction.

Availability: Packages are available in limited quantities. Ticket packages go on sale two weeks prior to individual tickets, and package sales will conclude on September 12, 2026. Individual tickets for all Rozsa Presenting Series events will become available starting August 6, 2026, while tickets last.

By purchasing, accepting, or utilizing a ticket for any event hosted by or through the Rozsa Center, patrons explicitly agree to abide by the policies, guidelines, and terms and conditions detailed at
