

Large Print Program

The Rozsa Center for the Performing Arts presents

Samantha Ege

In Concert

7:30 p.m. , Thursday,

September 29, 2022

Rozsa Center for the Performing Arts

Run Time: TBD

Photos and Recording is Prohibited

Homage: Women Composers & the Black Renaissance

Zenobia Powell Perry

Homage

Robert Nathaniel Dett

Enchantment

I. Incantation

II. Song of the Shrine

III. Dance of Desire

Betty Jackson King

Four Seasonal Sketches

I. Spring Intermezzo

II. Summer Interlude

III. Autumn Dance

IV. Winter Holiday

Photos and Recording is Prohibited

Samuel Coleridge Taylor

Moorish Dance, Op. 55

Nora Holt

Negro Dance

Intermission

Florence Price

Fantasie Nègre No. 2 in G minor

Margaret Bonds

Spiritual Suite

I. The Valley of the Bones

II. The Bells

III. Troubled Water

Florence Price

Fantasie Nègre No. 1 in E minor

About Samantha Ege:

Photos and Recording is

Prohibited

Dr. Samantha Ege is an award-winning researcher, internationally recognized concert pianist, and renowned public speaker. She belongs to a new generation of practitioners who are redefining classical music and illuminating the diversity of its past, present, and future.

Photos and Recording is Prohibited

View the Digital Program

for photos and information about this event, the Rozsa, and our supporters!

bit.ly/rozsaprograms

---

Michigan Technological University is an Equal Opportunity Educational Institution/Equal Opportunity Employer that provides equal opportunity for all, including protected veterans and individuals with disabilities.

Photos and Recording is Prohibited