

The Senate of Michigan Technological University

PROPOSAL 2-67

POLICY ON COURSES IN RELIGION

The Senate does hereby recommend to the President of Michigan Technological University that:

1. The institution pursue further the possibility of introducing courses in the field of Religion, and
2. When and if such courses are inaugurated, they be instructed by an individual properly qualified through sufficient academic training.

Proposal Adopted by Senate: No Action on Record