WHAT THEY MEAN TO US
For every sister our philanthropies represent something different. Some members have family or friends they know suffering from CFF or eating disorders, and some members have struggled themselves. Even if it is simply the desire to give back to something we find important, these organizations mean a great deal to all of us, and we are constantly working together to see what we can do to help.
THE pearl PROGRAM

To assure we are fulfilling our organization’s values, we keep track of our engagement in activities that encompass the meaning of the 5 S’s, and record them as a “pearl.” Over the course of one academic year, each sister will complete 21 pearls, four pearls for each ‘S,’ and one overall self-improvement pearl. This program is designed to give members the opportunity to expand personal experiences and become a stronger individual with the support of their sisters.

WEEKLY geek

At the beginning of each semester, sisters are grouped into teams for our “Weekly Geek” academic program. Each week of the semester, members keep track of their attendance to classes on the Weekly Geek board, and whether or not they have completed the “weekly challenge.” This challenge changes every week, and consists of activities such as attending office hours, staying after class, attending an academic workshop, etc. Based on these activities, points are awarded, and the team with the most points is rewarded with a free lunch/dinner.
LUMI

Every year on the day of the first snowfall, we host “Lumi” which is a social gathering at our house with the other Greek organizations on campus to celebrate the start of winter.

SISTERHOOD RETREAT

Twice a year we put on a “sisterhood retreat” designed to help grow the bonds of sisterhood and spend quality time together as a chapter.

OTHER EVENTS

Homecoming, Winter Carnival, Athletic Intramurals, Secret Santa, Movie Nights, Sisterhood Dinners, Self-Improvement Workshops, DphiCheese, Deepher Feaster...
What is your favorite memory with your sisters?

My favorite sisterhood memory is working on statues during Winter Carnival. It’s always busy around that time of year and being with sisters for hours listening to music and having fun is something I always look forward to. And, at the end of the month long statue season we have something that we all built together.

- Cayla Woods, VP of Recruitment

Almost all of my favorite memories in college involve sisters. A recent one was one of many trips to the Drive Thru Depot up by Lake Linden. All of the sisters living in the house piled into two cars and practically bought the place out. It was such a small thing but we were all just having so much fun joking around and making each other laugh. It makes me smile just writing it out here! It's so nice to know I have made such genuine connections in my sorority.

- Recruitment Counselor, VP of House Management
My sisters encourage and support me by pushing me to continue to challenge myself. They motivate me academically, encourage me to get involved on campus, and lend a helping hand when I need it the most. Through being involved in this sisterhood, I have learned what a true friend is and how I can reciprocate that love.
- Hannah Quinn, President

I know I can always talk to a sister when I'm going through a hard time. It's not uncommon to get a text from a sister you haven't heard from in awhile just to check in with you and see how you're doing. My sisters encourage and inspire me because I see them be incredibly involved in our sorority and on campus with leadership positions, all while still prioritizing and doing well in their classes.
- Josie Edick

Whenever I have a setback, I feel like I can share it and laugh about it without worrying that they will think less of me. It has really helped me not self-shame for the inconsequential things. I think being valued for things that I didn't expect to be valued for also helped expand my own image of myself.
- Francesca Fusco
WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO YOU TO BE A MEMBER OF THIS ORGANIZATION?

I have so much pride in Delta Phi Epsilon. The sorority to me means strong academics, giving back to our community, and supporting others.
- Emma Debaeke, VP of Programming

To me, being a member of Delta Phi Epsilon means being a sister to everyone, exhibiting the values of justice, sisterhood, and love in my daily life, and working to become a better version of myself.
- Recruitment Counselor, VP of Member Development
