"I've grown greatly in global literacy and come to understand it at a much deeply rooted level. Before I went abroad I understood that different countries had different values and cultures, but now I understand how those differences influence the functioning and day-to-day life in a society. I have so much more to learn though."

"My study abroad experience was an amazing opportunity to learn a lot about myself. Personally, I learned that I am much more adventurous than I knew before and I have become a very altruistic person.  Academically, I consider myself more cultured in an international perspective when compared to my colleagues in the forest resources and environmental science department. Professionally, I have become a more assertive individual by gaining more confidence from my traveling experiences. It was an experience I will never forget."

"The EPS program has educated and taught me new technical, social, and cross-cultural skills relevant to my engineering field. I am so unbelievably thankful to have gotten the opportunity to study, learn and explore for four months abroad and finish out my education in a country my great grandparents had immigrated from."

"I learned a lot about who I am and I have grown as a person more than I would be able to at Michigan Tech. This program has opened my eyes to exactly how much we forget, or even ignore, about the world, including our world in the US.

Studying abroad will force you to go outside your comfort zone and do things that you haven't thought about before, and that is okay. But if you even think that it might be for you, study abroad."
