Midyear Orientation 2021
Sunday, January 10, 2021
Fully Virtual Program (Zoom): https://michigantech.zoom.us/j/84941038564

Spatial Visualization Test (if needed) | 12 -1 PM EST
Virtual on Zoom (note - this link is different than the orientation link): https://michigantech.zoom.us/j/81082539806
All Engineering, Engineering Management, and Audio Production and Technology students are required to take the Spatial Visualization Test (excluding Software Engineering and Mechanical Engineering Technology). If you took this test already, you do NOT need to take it a second time. Please contact your advisor if you have questions.

Please have at the ready: your M-Number, access to your @mtu.edu email address, a good internet connection

Orientation Schedule (Eastern Standard Time)

Welcome to Michigan Tech | 1 - 1:15 PM
Get the day started with a thoughtful welcome from Joseph Cooper, Interim Dean of Students.

Academic Success and Campus Resources | 1:20 - 1:45 PM
Learn about the many resources and services available through the Wahtera Center for Student Success and across campus to assist your transition to Michigan Tech and enhance your academic experience.

Academic Opportunities Outside the Classroom | 1:50 - 2:15 PM
Hear about how you can take advantage of the Pavlis Honors College, Study Abroad, and the Enterprise Program to distinguish your college experience and define your roadmap to success.

Involvement and Experience Tech (Arts, Athletics, and Recreation) | 2:20 -2:45 PM
Get an overview of the opportunities to get involved through student organizations, community service events, campus traditions, leadership opportunities, and how to make the most of the Experience Tech Fee through Athletics and Recreation and the Rozsa Center for the Performing Arts.

Break | 2:45 - 3 PM

Being Well at Tech | 3 - 3:25 PM
Life outside the classroom is a big part of your student experience. We’ll help with some concepts and resources that will help you to thrive, body and mind, and to maintain healthy relationships while here.

Students Speak | 3:30 – 4:15 PM
Engage with a panel of current students who started as mid-year entrants and transfer students. There will be plenty of time for your questions.
