Front Desk Manager
Position Description

The Basics

Front Desk Managers are in the center of it all. Maintaining a busy hub for both staff and participants, they’re in the know of all happenings at Summer Youth Programs. They remain calm under pressure and are an example of high quality customer service. Multitasking is key as you will quickly respond to a variety of needs such as managing medications, answering the phones and making merchandise sales. They have superb communication skills and attention to detail, serving as a crucial relay point between students and professional and lead staff. Front Desk Managers are well-organized and trustworthy while handling participant information and money. They are productive working independently or with a partner and are able to refocus quickly after visitors to the desk.
