WHO WE ARE

Our mission is to spark curiosity💡 and a love for the pursuit🔍 of knowledge. In this role you will be working directly with our renowned Summer Youth Programs (SYP) to promote our upcoming 50th anniversary and to highlight the impact of the SYP experience. We need a self-starter who's skilled with social media and graphic design, can capture high-quality photographs, and who has a passion for working with youth.

WHO YOU ARE

A self-starter who's skilled with social media and graphic design, can capture high-quality photographs, is proficient in content creation, and has a passion for working with youth. Ideally, you have or are working towards a degree in marketing, graphic design, or communications.

THE OPPORTUNITY

We're looking for a start in January 2022, with options to continue through the summer. This is a great opportunity for a stellar person to build versatile skills, and gain unique professional experiences👜. Photography experience preferred, but not required.
